Welcome Back

Welcome back

Hopefully everyone had a lovely break and is now ready for a busy term! Congratulations to the Avis family on the safe arrival of Ellie last Monday.

Small Schools Cross Country

What a great way to end last term. The children are to be congratulated on the way they competed. They tried their best and we had some outstanding results. Brayden, Lilly, Billy, Charles, Troy and Charlize all finished first in their age groups for the Small Schools' group.

ANZAC Day

Children who are able to march please meet Mrs Smith at the corner of South and Hill Streets at 10.30am. Thank you to Jason for reading a prayer and Michael and Troy for laying the wreath.

Winter Uniforms

Anyone who wishes to order winter uniforms from the catalogue please get an order form from school.

Term 2 Calendar

Attached is a Term 2 calendar for your information. It looks busy!

Permission Notes

There are several permission notes attached to be returned -

♦ Life Education Van—Tuesday 28th April

Yarrowitch visit us for this day. Children have a Personal Development lesson in the Van.

♦ Leadership Years 5/6 at Tamworth—Monday 4th May

Years 5/6 will participate in a day of Leadership activities. Mrs Hazlewood will transport the children.

♦ Small Schools Athletics carnival at Niangala on Tuesday 5th May

The whole school participates in this carnival. Parents are asked to transport their children or organise a lift. The 800m is run at 8.45am, followed by the March at about 9am. After the running events, the older children have field events while the younger children have novelty races. The day concludes with the Presentation. There is a canteen, run by Niangala P&C, available for morning tea and lunch. Could you please return the lunch order form by Monday, but pay on the day.
