A Week Without The Seniors, by Zoe

Oh! I wish I was at Sydney with the big kids. On Monday the big kids went to Sydney with Mrs Smith. I interviewed all the Juniors about our week without the Seniors and this is what they said:

Levi: "I am sad because I liked playing with Iva".

Brayden: "I feel bored because it is exciting to play with them".

Katie: "I am happy because they always play at the handball court when we want to play handball.

Tiffany: "I am happy because it is quieter in the playground".

Maddie: "I miss them a lot".

Letiesha: "I miss Molly because I like playing with her".

Me: "I miss the big kids and Mrs Smith a lot".

Painting the Tyres, by Katie

Slop! Slop! Slop! There are so many colours. We used white, yellow, blue, green, red and orange to colour the tyres. There were only three people on a tyre at a time. We have made dots and patterns and the tyres look very pretty. We had to colour them white first and let them dry. We had to colour them in colours so they looked pretty. Levi was late so he couldn't colour the white. He could colour them in the colours.

Safe Respectful Learners

Welcome Back

We welcome Lucas back to our school after his time in Armidale.

Niangala Well Being Day, Wednesday 1st November

The whole school is off to Niangala for a Well Being Day run by Healthwise. There will be various activities based around self-esteem, nutrition, healthy lifestyle, mental health and sun safety. The Seniors will be participating in a workshop about Puberty. If you have any concerns please contact the school. Healthwise are providing morning tea for all the children, but they do need their lunch and a piece of fruit for fruit break upon arrival. Please return the attached permission note. The morning bus run will be as usual.

Kids In The Kitchen, Thursday 2nd November

Next Thursday the Seniors will be cooking lunch for the whole school. As they are all in Sydney, I'm not sure what is going to be on the menu, but I know it will be delicious!

School Photos, Friday 17th November

There is an attached order form if you are interested in ordering some photos. The money and order form can be returned at any time up to the 17th of November.

Students of the Week

20/10/17 Iva Haling for excellence in Spelling	20/10/17 Zoe Cas for great work in Mathematics
27/10/17	27/10/17 Tiffany Towney for her kindness towards others

Sydney Excursion

I'm sure everyone is having a wonderful time in Sydney! We can't wait to hear about it next week when they return.
