Well Being Day at Niangala, By Lucas

We all went on the bus for about an hour and we did PE when we got there. We did three activities. First, when you put the candy down you had to say an emotion and when you had felt like that. Next we learnt about good food. Then we played a game filling buckets with water and stealing water from each one. The buckets were sleep, food, exercise and connection (families and friends). After lunch we came home.

The Ferry Ride, By Molly

Whoa! Splash! The sparkling blue green waves splashed against the side of the boat as we slowly drove through the water. We got to Manly Beach and had the best fun and then we found a ... LOLLY SHOP! There was every lolly you can dream of there. On the way back it was dark but the view was incredible. When we got closer we could see the Harbour Bridge's red lights and we went straight past the Opera House! On the way back to the hotel we heard THUMP THUMP we turned around and there were fireworks in the sky! It was amazing—the best excursion ever!

Sydney Highlights, by the Seniors

Wow! This view is soooo awesome. We climbed the harbour bridge and it was really awesome. The funniest part was when Ms Smith got told to yell to activate this mist that cooled us down, but you actually just had to press a button! It is awesome that I can say I climbed the harbour bridge!

What a view! Everything is small from up here! My favourite part of the Sydney excursion was climbing the harbour bridge. The view was just breathtaking, I just loved every part of it. Before we started climbing we had to put suits and gear on to make sure you didn't fall off. We had to put on headphones and caps. When we started we mainly walked up stairs until eventually we reached some ladders. Then we ventured up the arch which was the most fun. I didn't ever want to stop climbing because it was so much fun.

Wow! Look at the view from the top of the harbour bridge. Did you know there are over 2,000 steps to climb to get to the top and then another 2,000 to get back down again? To begin with you had to put on a suit and a harness and headphones and a cap. They showed us how to climb up a ladder. I was a bit nervous climbing the bridge. I thought it would be more difficult. We saw heaps of tall buildings from the top. We even saw a big cruise ship. I can't believe I actually climbed the bridge!

Soil Sample

This morning we all walked to the Woolbrook Hall to collect a soil sample to send to Sydney as part of the ANZAC Soil Collection Program. Our soil samples will then become part of a memorial being established to represent where all the soldiers came from that fought in the war.
