CWA Day at Walcha Central 14th June -

by Sarah Oneil

Yah! It was CWA day. We had been waiting for this for weeks. We made slides on Nepal. We went to Walcha Central on Wednesday 14 June. We looked at slides then Mr France explained what it is like to live in Nepal. After that we had Nepalese food for lunch. We then walked to the fitness area on the levy bank and played. We then went to McHattan Park and played for awhile, then we jumped on the bus and went home.

Capitol Theatre 16th June in Tamworth -

By Molly Williams

Mr Stink! - Screech! The bus pulled up. Last Friday we drove to Tamworth. Firstly we walked around the Art Gallery. There was an awesome face made out of recycled pencils. We saw an indigenous group of ladies. We saw sculptures of ladies' pregnant stomachs. They were very colourful. One of them had a light in it and showed a slide show. After that we drove to Marsupial Park. Iva, Sarah, Troy and I spun really fast on the round-about. Finally we went to the Capitol Theatre to see 'Mr Stink' which was a live performance. The best part of the show was when they all danced at the end. It was so cool. I think the dance was Indian. It was the highlight of my day.

Clubs - by Iva Haling

Ouch! I stretched my leg onto the other one. Every Tuesday we do clubs. The activities that we do are Yoga and Japanese. In Yoga we all did positions such as the lotus position, the harbour bridge position and the seesaw, but that is just some of the positions that we did. I interviewed Zoe: 'In Japanese we learnt to count from one to five, write one to five and some people tried on the Japanese hat. We also made a colourful kite.'
